Program details:

Feeling stuck, uncertain, or curious about what comes next in your work or career? This two-session Career Lab uses practical tools to help you navigate a career or work transition. Through guided exercises, reflection, and conversation, you will gain a deeper understanding of yourself, explore possible career directions, and identify next steps with greater clarity and confidence. In partnership with Graham Dover, a certified career coach. Must be able to attend both sessions.

Location: ParkLane Room
