Social justice book club sets

The Port Moody Public Library offers book club sets on social justice topics for kids, teens, and adults. Each set contains ten copies of the book and a set of questions to help guide your discussion.

See all the titles available

Adult book club sets

- Such a Fun Age by Kiley Reid
- A Tale for the Time Being by Ruth Ozeki
- We Have Always Been Here by Samra Habib
- They Called Me Number One: Secrets and Survival at an Indian Residential School by Bev Sellars
- Life Isn’t Binary: On Being Both, Beyond, and In-Between by Alex Iantaffi and Med-John Barker
- 21 Things You May Not Know About the Indian Act by Robert Joseph
- Biased: Uncovering the Hidden Prejudice that Shapes What We See, Think, and Do by Jenniger L. Eberhardt
- The Skin We’re In by Desmond Cole

Teen book club sets

- The Love and Lies of Rukhsana Ali by Sabina Khan
- Punching the Air by Ibi Zoboi and Yusef Salaam

Kids' book club sets

- Other Words for Home by Jasmine Warga
- When Stars are Scattered by Victoria Jamieson and Omar Mohamed Ancestor
- Approved: Intertribal Stories for Kids edited by Cynthia Leitch Smith

Loan period, renewal, and holds

- You may check out the set for an extended loan period of six weeks.
- You can renew the set one time, as long as there are no other patrons waiting.
- You can place a hold on a book club set using our online catalogue.

Borrowing a book club set

- Visit the Library Account Desk to borrow a book club set.
- Book club sets will be checked out to a single Port Moody Library cardholder.
- The cardholder is responsible for ensuring that:
    - The set is returned on time.
    - All items are returned with the set.
    - All items in the set are returned in good condition.

Returning a book club set

- Book club sets must be returned to the Port Moody Public Library. It cannot be dropped off at another library system.
- Return the set to the Accounts Desk. Please do not return the kits to the book drop.