Identification required to apply for a card

Bring the following documents to the Library:

- One piece of government-issued ID with your current address, such as a driver's licence, or
- One piece of government-issued ID and one document with your current address, such as a utility bill, a bank statement, a rental agreement, car insurance papers, or a piece of mail with your name on it.

We also accept address information from an online account, or a clear photo or scan of a document showing your address.

To apply for a library card for your child under the age of 13, bring one piece of government-issued ID for the child (e.g. birth certificate), in addtion to the documents listed above.

I live in Anmore, Belcarra, Lions Bay, or UBC Endowment Lands.

You can get an annual paid membership.

You may qualify for a free library card if you own property or business in the Lower Mainland or Fraser Valley, or if you have already paid for a membership at another library. Contact the Accounts Desk at 604-469-4575 for more information.

I live in British Columbia outside of the Lower Mainland, Fraser Valley, Squamish-Lillooet Regional District, or on the Sunshine Coast.

You can get a free BC OneCard.

Identification required to apply for a card
