Book a Digitization Station orientation

*Indicates required field

Book an orientation with staff to learn how to use our Digitization Station. We will show you how to use the equipment and go through the digitization process together.

Once you have completed an orientation, you may book additional sessions to digitize on your own.

We will contact you within the week to confirm details for your orientation.

Name

First name *

Last name *

Please provide your email address and/or a phone number so we can contact you to confirm your orientation details.

Email address *

Phone number

Communication preference

? Email

? Phone

Library card number *

Please select the type of orientation you would like. * - Select - ?

What multimedia software would you like to learn? - None - ?

Please provide any extra details about what you would like to learn.

Please provide any extra details about what you would like to learn.

Please provide any extra details about what you would like to learn.

Please describe the type of files you would like to convert.

What would you like to digitize? - Select - ?

What is your comfort level with computers? * - Select - ?

What day of the week and time work best for you? You can choose more than one option.

? Monday morning
? Tuesday morning
? Wednesday morning
? Wednesday afternoon
? Saturday morning
? Other…

Submit