Ukulele Kits

Do you want to learn the ukulele? Now is your chance!

The Port Moody Public Library has ukuleles for loan! Borrow a kit that includes a soft protective bag, ukulele (Soprano or Concert), Hal Leonard Ukulele Method Book 1, and tuner.

How do I borrow a Ukulele Kit?

You can check out a ukulele kit with your library card from our Accounts desk.

You can borrow a kit for three weeks. Overdue kits are subject to a fine of $0.35 per day. Kits may be renewed up to two times (as long as there are no other customers waiting).

Want a kit but one is not available? Place a hold on a ukulele kit through the online catalogue.

Learn how to play

The Library offers a variety of ukulele resources to help your further your learning, including ukulele jams that run throughout the year. Check out the Library's programs and events calendar to participate.

We have resources such as the Complete Ukulele Course and Ukulele for Beginners. If you are a cardholder who lives in Port Moody, you can access LinkedIn Learning, which offers a ukulele lessons fundamentals course.

There are also other lots of different online tutorial and resources to help you on your ukulele journey, such as Free Ukulele Lessons.

Soprano versus Concert ukulele?

Soprano ukuleles are 21? and the most common and standard type of ukulele. They are known for their jangly sound and are good ukuleles for beginners or children.

Concert ukuleles are 23” and are a little bit bigger than Soprano ukuleles. Some consider them to have a fuller sound. They are a good option for adults with larger hands.

All done with your kit?

When you are ready to return your ukulele kit, you can take it directly to the Port Moody Public Library Accounts desk. Please do not attempt to return kits in the book drop.
