Using the library

Located in the Civic Centre complex adjacent to City Hall, the Port Moody Public Library is a welcoming and safe space to access lifelong learning and growth.

Get a library card

Visit us in person to apply for a Port Moody Public Library card. Lean more about getting a new card, replacing a card, and resetting your PIN.

Account information

Log in to your library account, access our library app, and learn more about our borrowing guidelines.

Hours, contact, and location

Find information about our location, parking, EV charging stations, and getting here.

Access our hours

Computers and tech

Learn about computer and tech programs, tech help appointments, public computers, and printing services.

Accessible services

Current accessibility features include adjustable desks, designated parking, low service counters, accessible washrooms, power operated doors, and physical and downloadable books is accessible formats.

Book a group tour

We offer free library tours for different types of groups. Tours last 45 minutes to one hour.

Library app

Use the Port Moody Public Library app to manage your account and search our collections anytime, anywhere with your smartphone or tablet.

Download the app from the App Store or Google Play.

Library spaces

Study and work spaces

The Port Moody Public Library has different kinds of study and work spaces for individuals and groups.

Learn more about our spaces

Talking Room

The Talking Room is a conversation?friendly space designed for individuals or small groups of up to four people. This room is ideal for Zoom calls, group projects, or small meetings. You can borrow a whiteboard or laptop for your booking by asking at the Information Desk. Please note that the Talking Room is not intended for hosting events or programs. The room must be booked.

Book the talking room

Related topics

- Digitization Station
- Computers, printing, and scanning
- Get computer and tech help

- News and announcements
- Digital library
- Accessible services