September 23, 2026

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

Categories:

Library news

The Port Moody Public Library will be closed on Wednesday, September 30 for the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation.

The National Day for Truth and Reconciliation and Orange Shirt Day are observed each year to honour the lost children and Survivors of residential schools, their families, and communities.

The Port Moody Public Library will continue to amplify Indigenous voices in the hope that listening to and reading the works of Indigenous authors can help strengthen the path to reconciliation and pave the way for healing. We commit to reviewing and updating our collections to ensure that they include and are reflective of the Indigenous Peoples of Canada.

Book suggestions

Adult TRC books

Explore more Adult TRC books

Explore all the titles on this list

Children's TRC books

Explore more Children's TRC books

Explore all the titles on this list

Read, watch, listen

CBC Corner: Indigenous news, podcasts, music, and more

National Film Board of Canada: Indigenous Cinema

More resources

Indian Residential School Survivors Society

National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation

Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada: Calls to Action

UBC Residential School History and Dialogue Centre